

AG:2 — Heroes and Monsters — Q/A

Recommended Reading: Greek Gods, Heroes by Harding, "Labors of Hercules" to "Golden Fleece" and Gods and Heroes by Francillon, "Orpheus and Eurydice" to "Apple of Discord".

- 1) Jason and his companions on the "Argo" sailed in search of this.
- 2) This three-headed dog guarded the entrance to the underworld
- 3) This is how people were killed when they looked at the Gorgon's Head.
- 4) This hero was a great tamer of horses and used an enchanted bridle to tame Pegasus, a flying horse.
- 5) Female spirits associated with rivers, streams, lakes, fountains, wells, and other fresh bodies of water.
- 6) These are minor deities who were born of one human and one immortal parent.
- 7) This huntress and the fastest runner in Greece, and she refused to marry any man who could not beat her in a footrace.
- 8) This is how Hercules killed the hydra, a monster that grew two heads for each that was cut off.
- 9) This was the first of the twelve tasks of Hercules.
- 10) These nymphs of the evening tend a beautiful garden in the west guarded by a hundred headed dragon.
- 11) This goddess hated Hercules, and was the cause of many of his tribulations.

- 12) These twin brothers who accompanied Jason on his travels, later became a constellation in the stars.
- 13) Using his flying horse Pegasus, Bellerophon fought this fire breathing serpent that was ravaging Lycia.
- 14) This centaur was Jason's teacher, who raised him in hiding from his evil uncle.
- 15) These were beautiful women who lured sailors to shipwreck with irresistible music and song.
- 16) This beautiful enchantress helped Jason by using her magic to protect him from the fire-breathing bulls of Aetes.
- 17) Eteocles and Polynices, the sons of Oedipus, fought a terrible civil war and killed each other over this.
- 18) This is the answer to the Sphinx's riddle: "What creature walks upon four feet in the morning, upon two at noon, and upon three at night?"
- 19) This centaur tried to run off with Hercules' wife, and then tricked her into killing Hercules with a vile of poisoned blood.
- 20) Andromeda was chained to a rock, ready to be devoured by a monster to allay the wrath of Poseidon, when she was rescued by this hero.
- 21) Danae and her son, Perseus, were cast adrift on the sea in this vessel.
- 22) Before it was killed by Theseus, the Minotaur dwelt in this place.
- 23) This monster had the head of a bull, lived in a Labyrinth, and feasted on youths and maidens.
- 24) This Greek hero killed the robber Sciron, the bandit, Procrustes, and the man-eating Minotaur.