

NAME: _____

BME:5 – Tudors and Reformation — Q/A

Recommended Reading: Story of the English by Guerber, Chapters 66-82, Our Island Story by Marshall. Chapters 60-73

- 1) This powerful minister was blamed for failing to obtain a divorce for Henry VIII and so was deprived of his office.
- 2) This chancellor of England was a great friend of Henry VIII until he refused to sign the oath of Supremacy.
- 3) This English seaman entered the harbor of Cadiz, Spain and burned thirty ships.
- 4) In this great sea battle, England won a decisive victory over Spain and established herself as a strong naval power.
- 5) Henry Tudor hired this Italian sea captain to explore North America on behalf of England.
- 6) This minister of Henry VIII was primary politician responsible for closing the monasteries and passing their property on to supportive nobles.
- 7) Henry VIII required everyone in government, church, or university employment to take an oath recognizing him as the head of the Church of England.
- 8) This prelate helped Henry VIII arrange a divorce of his wife Catherine and was then appointed Archbishop of Canterbury.
- 9) At this elaborate tournament, held in Calais, France, Henry VIII and Francis I pledged peace and friendship.
- 10) Because of this effort, the Roman Pope bestowed the title of "Defender of the Faith" on Henry VIII.
- 11) The day after Anne Boleyn was executed Henry VIII married this woman, his third wife and the mother of Edward VI.
- 12) This ambitious noble became Lord Protector during the reign of Edward VI and used his position to try to seize the throne for his daughter-in-law, Lady Jane Grey.

NAME: _____

- 13) This was a court that tried private cases before the king's council and had no right of appeal.
- 14) The older brother of Jane Seymour, who went by this title, was regent during the minority of Edward VI until he was overthrown by ambitious nobles.
- 15) Edward VI was influenced to write a will leaving the throne to this Protestant cousin rather than his Catholic sister, Mary.
- 16) Mary I had the support of the English people, but she greatly displeased them when she did this.
- 17) This stepson of Robert Dudley was a favorite of Queen Elizabeth, but he was executed for treason in spite of her favors.
- 18) During the reign of Queen Elizabeth, England came to the aid of this country in its ongoing war with Spain.
- 19) This English adventurer received a charter from Queen Elizabeth to fund and organize an English colony at Roanoke, North Carolina.
- 20) Although Elizabeth had many suitors, this man enjoyed her trust and close friendship for over thirty years.
- 21) This man was Elizabeth's chief advisor and was the power behind the throne in England for most of her reign.
- 22) This was the name of the ship the Sir Francis Drake sailed around the World.
- 23) Henry Tudor married Elizabeth of York right after he was crowned king for this reason.
- 24) At this battle, fought in the early years of Henry VIII's reign, Scotland suffered a terrible defeat at the hands of England, and James VI, king of Scotland, was killed.